White Wine of the month; Moving to Marlborough in 2004 to set up the vineyard, Kate Hayward was quite homesick so she decided to name it after a piece of her Taranaki home, Sugar Loaf Islands. This is a good clean, fresh, Riesling with a fresh spritely nose, a slight touch of residual sugar and a body to match. She is easy and loving to be savoured well into the evening with a lingering finish.

Red wine of the Month; Woollaston Estates, where the art of winemaking is celebrated every day, has a state of the art four-level winery is built into the hillside to blend into the area with its tussock covered roof. The roof may blend in but this wine with an elegant, palate with harmonious red plum and cherry woven into fine grained, tannins yielding to a lingering finish, certainly does not.
